

Ozymandias

My name is Ozymandias, King of Kings;
Look on my Works, ye Mighty, and despair!
My name is Ozymandias, ruler of the;
Look on my Works, so wonderful and rare!

My name is Ozymandias, King of Kings;
Look on my Works, ye Mighty, and despair!
My name is Ozymandias, ruler of the;
Look on my Works, so wonderful and rare!

I met a traveller from an antique land
He was a groggy fellow with a nice tan
He told me a story from not to long ago
Painted with words with two legs of stone
Stand in the desert, near by on the sand,
A half sunk visages lies that frown expands
And wrinkled lip, and sneer of cold command
A lone scripture lays there on a tall long stand

My name is Ozymandias, King of Kings;
Look on my Works, ye Mighty, and despair!
My name is Ozymandias, ruler of the;
Look on my Works, so wonderful and rare!

My name is Ozymandias, King of Kings;
Look on my Works, ye Mighty, and despair!
My name is Ozymandias, ruler of the;
Look on my Works, so wonderful and rare!

Stand in the desert, near by on the sand,
A half sunk visages lies that frown expands
And wrinkled lip, and sneer of cold command
A lone scripture lays there on a tall long stand
Nothing beside remains around this decay
only thing around was miles of sand that lay
Of that colossal Wreck, clearly on display
The lone and level sands stretch far away.”
